Dear Sylvia,

Recently I've heard glowing accounts of a study you did on Givens (and lawyers), establishing perjury and probably its subornation.

I appear not to have a copy.

If you have one to spare, I'd appreciate it.

I've heard of the Cook review and Jerry is mailing me a copy.

Nothing else really new, save that two major media elements have assigned the book to their DJ correspondents.

Maybe Kleindienst's excesses yesterday will help a bit, if they get that far in their reading.

My effecient publishers, after months, have not yet copied and returned the originals, which handicaps.

Wanna offer odds on the Boggs effort?

Best,
